

BATTLEFIELD

For 2 players
ages 12 and older
20 to 30 minutes.

The Particulars:

Return to the days of glory... Knights of the Realm fighting for crown and kingdom! In this card game for two, each medieval army comes to the Battlefield with an equal force to pit arms and armor against each other.

Here are swords and spears, archers and pikeman, mercenaries and peasants. Should you reinforce your weaker troops to defend a valuable unit, or sacrifice the poorer soldiers so your powerful Paladin will survive to fight another day? Beware the plague, the inclement weather, and arcane forces while you rely on spies and clerics to give you an advantage over your enemies.

The game includes two decks of 72 cards representing the blue and the red armies, from the lowliest foot soldiers to the Royal Family. God speed!
